

Fall Time is Brighten Up time—the time when towns and cities plan Brighten Up Campaigns—when the whole family starts housecleaning and brightening up—when you get the Brighten Up spirit. It's the time to Brighten Up the worn chair, the old floor, the dingy walls—the time to Brighten Up the whole house with Sherwin-Williams Paints and Varnishes

SWP

ACKERMAN-STEWART DRUG CO.

Exclusive Agents for SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS.

ROUND ABOUT FLORIDA.

A Masonic temple costing $75,000 is to be erected at New Smyrna.

A Birmingham company will manufacture a soft drink at Jacksonville.

St. Augustine now has a plumbing board, appointed to insure sanitary plumbing throughout the city.

A Jacksonville firm, manufacturing dry kilns, recently received an order from far-off Russia.

Several palatial homes are in course of erection on the east coast for wealthy winter visitors.

The handsome new Carnegie library at Ocala has been opened to the public.

The acreage in celery will be doubled over last year by the Davie growers.

Ten acres of muck land for a banana plantation have been purchased by Glen F. Bates, who recently moved to Ft. Lauderdale.

According to the opinion of Professor Dewey, government botanist, the sisal industry can be developed with great success in Dade county.

Jacksonville is after the 1917 convention of the National Grain Dealers' association, which meets in Baltimore this year.

The department of commerce announces that George C. Pickett, second assistant and keeper of the Pensacola light station, has resigned.

Many attractions have been secured for the West Florida fair at Marianna Nov. 7 to 11, inclusive, and according to President J. D. Smith a record attendance is expected.

Commencing Oct. 17, the Florida supreme court will conduct the next regular examination of applicants for admission to the bar of this state, at Tallahassee.

Preparations are being made throughout Putnam county for the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America, which meets in Palatka on Nov. 21.

In spite of the fact that a majority of the troops are on the border, Secretary of War Baker announces that the rifle matches at Black Point range will be held on Oct. 20.

Much enthusiasm is being demonstrated throughout Jackson and surrounding counties over the West Florida fair, to be held in Marianna November 7.

The Florida Mutual Fire Insurance company, of Tampa, capitalized at $500,000, began business under a charter issued under the recently enacted mutual insurance law of Florida.

The South Florida Strawberry Growers' association, with headquarters at Groveland, has placed an order for a quarter of a million strawberry plants. The intention is to plant 30 acres this season.

Alvices received announced the death of P. C. Parker, well-known resident of St. Augustine, who died Saturday of paralysis of the heart. Mr. Parker was 70 years old, and came to Florida from Trenton, N. J.

Four thousand miles in a houseboat and launch in one year, nine months, is the record of F. A. Stiles, family and friends, who arrived in Miami from their former home in Mandau, N. D.

One of the steamship lines operating vessels between Jacksonville and southern seaports will put on larger steamers to accommodate the winter tourist travel, which is expected to be heavier than usual.

Miami wants to be the next encampment of the state organization of the United Confederate Veterans.

The great packing plant being built at Jacksonville will be ready for final inspection on October 1.

During the past few days a number of changes have taken place in business circles in Leesburg. Three business houses have changed hands, a new business enterprise has opened up and a site has been secured for still another business.

Another shipbuilding concern is announced for Jacksonville, letters patent incorporating the same under the name of the South Atlantic Ship Building company having been granted. Well-known local business men are named as the incorporators.

Extensive work by the Southern Bell Telephone company at St. Augustine is in progress. The company will soon move the exchange from the city building to the Bishop's building on St. George street, and has quite a force making the desired changes in the new quarters.

Prof. C. J. McCoy, director of athletics in the University of Florida and coach of the football team, has reached the university and expects to begin active work on athletics for the season. Preliminary training for football games will be the first thing in order.

BIG "MOVIE" STUDIO.

Jacksonville to Have One of Largest in the World.

The top of the Union terminal building, in Jacksonville, Fla., containing 67,000 square feet of floor space, has been leased by the Garrick Studios company for 99 years, and it will be especially fitted up to take care of 25 operating moving picture companies at one time.

When completed it will be the largest studio under one roof in the world, and be second only to the Universal at Universal City, in size. It will be thoroughly equipped and be absolutely fireproof.

POMONA NEWS.

Will Keown of DeLand was the week-end guest of his sister, Mrs. C. A. Knowlton, coming up on his motorcycle.

Mrs. W. D. Middleton and Talmage Middleton left Saturday for a visit with relatives in Crescent City and Orlando.

Mr. and Mrs. Crill Williams after a wedding tour to Washington were recent visitors here on their way to Lakeland to reside.

Mrs. H. A. Perry and Miss Mary Morrison are enjoying a sojourn at the Hotel Neptune, Daytona Beach.

Miss Mary Williams has returned to Tallahassee to resume her studies as a student of the State College for Women.

The W. S. and C. C. Middleton families motored to St. Augustine one day last week for a day's outing on the beach.

Little Miss Mildred Stith terminated a long visit with her cousin Miss Edna Knowlton and returned Saturday to her home in DeLand.

The Pomona School opened Monday with a good attendance. Mrs. E. H. Byrns and Miss Nettie Holley are very efficient teachers, and we predict a most successful school term.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Dunn who have spent the summer season in Atlanta, Ga., and points in south Florida spent a few days with the W. S. Middleton this week, returning to Panama-sockie until about October 15th when they will come to their Pomona home for the winter.

Considerable excitement prevailed in the Rogers home one day recently when Miss Marjory found a snake of the vari-colored variety under a muffin pan in the kitchen pantry. The snake was about three feet long, and was killed as soon as the ladies recovered from the shock enough to find a weapon. As the house is well screened, how his snakeship gained an entrance remains a mystery.

Mrs. Blackman and son Burroughs, have moved from the farther end of Lake Broward to the Kerfoot cottage making the walk to town much shorter.

Miss Nettie Holley came up from Crescent City Sunday, and will make her home at the Middleton House during the school season.

The Pomona team again defended their laurels by defeating a fast team composed of players from Seville, Crescent City and Huntington on Saturday Sept. 16, at Pomona, by the score of 9 to 2. The batteries were Owens and Prevatt of Seville, for the visiting team, and Green and A. Tucker for Pomona. Umpires, Tinsley and Davidson.

INTERLACHEN NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Currie entertained the young people with a delightful informal party at their home Friday evening and again Saturday evening.

R. H. Gano loaded his car with a party of gay young people Saturday evening and motored to Palatka.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Diffendorf of Ocala, Utah were visitors in Interlachen Friday and Saturday, and expect to return for a longer stay after making a trip to the Southern part of the State.

Mrs. J. M. Jones spent the week end with friends in Starke.

Misses Gladys Bischoff and Margaret Mamm leave for Palatka this week, and will enter high school to continue their studies there.

A hard clay walk is now being laid around the amusement park, and the brush and undergrowth are being removed from the unoccupied lots in the blocks north of the hotel, making a marked improvement in the appearance of that section of town.

Work on the McCauley building has been resumed this week, and the structure will now be rapidly pushed to completion.

Mrs. E. A. Brush made a between trains visit to Hawthorn Monday, returning in company with Mrs. J. M. Jones.

Miss Ellnor Allen of Huntington spent the week-end here with her sister, Mrs. Currie.

Eagar M. Baker left Friday morning for Crystal River, where he will probably remain for some time.

Misses Erma Baker and Winifred Wylie came out from Palatka to spend the week-end at their homes.

FLORAHOME NEWS.

An ice cream festival was given by the V. I. A. Friday night, which was a success financially and socially, a large number of guests attending from nearby towns. A program of instrumental and vocal music and violin and piano duets was rendered by the Misses Pullen of Miami, and the Misses Josephine and Babbette Simpson gave recitations.

Hon. W. R. Revels presided over the entertainment and welcomed the visitors present. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Watkins and family of Putnam Hall, who motored over, Mr. and Mrs. Joyner and family; Mr. and Mrs. Fennel, Miss Fennel, Horace and Thomas Fennel; Mrs. Padgett and sons from Grandin who drove or came in autos.

The young peoples' dance at Palmetto hall Saturday night was a delightful affair, with guests from Gainesville, Putnam Hall, Grandin, New River and Carraway.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Tubbs gave a dinner Sunday, among the guests being Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hardy, Bernice Hardy, Mrs. A. W. Tucker, and Mr. and Mrs. Weingard.

Mrs. Sipprell and the Misses Sipprell entertained a company of friends from Putnam Hall and Grandin one evening last week.

Fishing and fish fries are the style just now in Florahome.

Mrs. Tilden, Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Weseman spent Saturday in Palatka.

The V. I. A. will resume its regular meetings in October.

SISCO NEWS.

Mrs. G. W. Harmon was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ring at the Wayside Inn recently.

Herbert Ragin who has been visiting the family of his uncle, J. C. Wells, the past week returned to his home at Orange Mills last Sunday.

Miss Jennie Pigue of Crescent City is the popular guest of Miss Grace Wells this week.

Miss Evelyn Alvers and Miss Jennie Ring are attending school at Pomona.

C. C. Alvers spent the week end in town with home folks returning to Palatka on Sunday.

Messrs. Wallace Smiley and F. Stockton of Crescent City were visitors in town last Sunday.

Miss Sarah Bard and Mr. J. Mc N. Bard of Welaka were in town last Wednesday on business and pleasure combined.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Davidson of Nashua were calling on friends in town last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wells and Miss Grace were recent visitors to Palatka.

HARLEM NEWS.

M. Bohannon, Ivan Bohannon, J. E. Manning and J. G. Minton were among our visitors to Palatka within the week.

Messrs. Clark and Genan were visitors here this week.

Mrs. S. J. Minton has been improving in health.

We have been having some good weather for gathering corn during the week, nice and cool, and the farmers have improved the time.

Ivan Bohannon has purchased a fine mule from J. E. Manning.

Miss Essie Minton and sisters of Hampton have been here on a visit to their grandfather, W. J. McRae.

NOTICE.

There will be a regular County meeting of The Farmers Educational and Co-operative Union, at the Court House, Palatka, on Saturday September 23rd, at ten o'clock A. M.

It is important that all local Unions of the County be represented.

HENRY HUTCHINSON,
Secretary and Treasurer.

Stump Speakers Get Busy.

The Democratic national committee announced at New York that beginning next week more than 100 prominent speakers will campaign in the middle west, giving particular attention to the states of Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan, while stump speakers will go into every state in the west.

ROUND TRIP RATES

OKLAHOMA VALLEY R.R.

SUNDAYS

FROM PALATKA TO

Silver Lake - - - 25c
Orange Springs - - - 80c
Silver Springs - - - $1.65

MANN-HODGE SEED CO.

Seed and Poultry Supplies
121 S. 2nd St.
PALATKA, - FLORIDA

NOW IS THE TIME—

Write for prices and full particulars as to Fruit Trees for all and Spring planting. Look at this list and select your trees for home planting. Special prices on large order. Varieties due to name from bearing trees, the famous Luc Gim Gong Orange, other varieties, Satsuma, Tangerine, Navel, Pineapple, Orange, Harts Late and Boones Early Kumquat and Villa Franca Lemon, Marsh Seedless and Walers Grapefruit.

Unlimited number fine Grafted Peach Trees, Cassava Cuttings, and Grass Plants, etc.

Address

Interlachen Nurseries

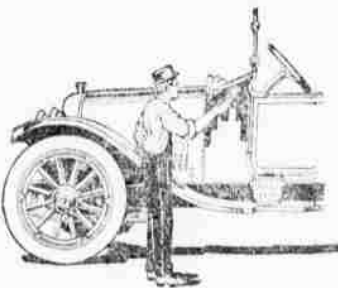

H. WYLIE, Interlachen, Fla.

FOR SALE—25,000 extra fine Klondike Strawberry plants for sale at $2.00 per thousand. All orders given prompt attention. Apply to I. I. HALL, Palatka, Fla., R. F. D. No. 1.

FOR RENT—My house No. 212 South 5th St., Palatka. Apply to S. E. Peck, Pomona, Florida.

FOUND—Watch chain and charm. Owner may have property by identifying same and paying for this advertisement. Call at News office.

FOR RENT—Store and flat on Lemon street near Court House. Apply to The News offices for particulars.

Won't you let us prove to you by one trial that there is no finish that will give you a lasting satisfaction like

DAVIS' VARNISH STAIN in point of luster, beauty, hardness, and above all WEAR? It is proclaimed the best by those who have used it for years.

RANDALL WELLS, C. E.

County Surveyor of Putnam County

Land surveying, Drainage Work, Maps, Blue Prints, Drawings of all kinds, Timber Estimates, Land Inspection, Etc. Accuracy guaranteed.

DR. J. C. SIKES

DENTIST

Over Kennerly Hardware Co. TELEPHONE 173.

Compare these prices with others. WHY PAY MORE when you can get absolutely first-class work at the following prices. Guaranteed for ten years:

Gold Crowns, - $5.00. White Crowns, - $5.00.
Bridge Work, per tooth, $5.00. Full set of teeth, $7.50.
Gold Fillings, - $1.50 up. Silver Fillings, - 75c up.

PAINLESS EXTRACTION FREE WHEN OTHER WORK IS DONE

PUTNAM PHARMACY

PALATKA, FLORIDA

Drugs, Chemicals, Druggist Sundries and Patents

PRESCRIPTIONS CAREFULLY COMPOUNDED.

FRESH GARDEN SEED. Agents Mallory Steamship Line